Mediterranean Ancient Theatres Network

This project has been funded with the support from the Culture Programme of the European Union

¿What is ATHENE?

ATHENE's project (Mediterranean Ancient Theatres Network) aims to contribute to cultural revitalization and valorisation of Ancient Theatres in this field of activity.

This project appears with sustainable spirit in order to revitalize the cultural cooperation among the three participant countries through the following main axes:

- Cultural Mobility of artistic products.
Definition and implementation of joint cultural itinerant activities in different disciplines in order to recover and valorise the ancient culture and its legacy.
- Mobility of Cultural Professionals.
Encouraging mobility through stays and good practices exchange workshops aiming at improve the skills on cultural management and on heritage and tourist valorisation of ATHENE's partners.
- Intercultural Dialogue.
Identification, characterization, selection and dissemination of artistic and cultural performances in order to favour the intercultural dialogue among the partners.

Project Actions

- Cultural cooperation.
A Euro-Mediterranean Festival will be programmed and organized during the summer of 2014 in the three different partner countries. It will consist in several common performances that will be represented in all the involved theatres in an itinerant way.

Festival will be coincident in time with interesting and varied Parallel Cultural Programme Events.
- Networking.
Development of ATHENE Network which will be constitute by managing entities of ancient theatres in Mediterranean areas with common interests which will be interested in taking part in project activities.
